PROVIDING CLEAN WATER. RESTORING HOPE. CHANGING LIVES.

LAKESHA WILSON

BOARD MEMBER

LaKesha Wilson is a dedicated public servant, business professional, and community-minded leader whose career reflects a strong commitment to integrity, responsibility, and service. She earned an Associate of Arts Degree in Business Accounting from Everest University after graduating from Edgewater High School in Orlando, Florida.

Her professional background spans customer service, retail, transportation, and government service. Since joining the United States Postal Service in 2012, LaKesha has demonstrated exceptional reliability and leadership, serving both as a supervisor and, for the past decade, as a City Mail Carrier.

Known for her strong work ethic and compassionate approach to helping others, LaKesha believes that meaningful service begins with treating people with dignity, fairness, and respect. Her personal philosophy, "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you," guides both her professional and personal life.

As a Board Member of Oasis N.O.W., LaKesha brings valuable operational experience, accountability, and a heart for community service. She is committed to supporting initiatives that provide access to clean water and essential resources while helping strengthen communities in need around the world.
