PROVIDING CLEAN WATER. RESTORING HOPE. CHANGING LIVES.

MICHAEL CHRIS PAYNE

BOARD MEMBER

Michael Chris Payne is a respected business professional, community advocate, and former collegiate athlete whose life has been defined by leadership, service, and a commitment to helping others. As a standout basketball player at Fairleigh Dickinson University, he became one of the institution's all-time leaders in scoring and rebounding, earning induction into the Fairleigh Dickinson Athletics Hall of Fame in 2007.

Following his athletic career, Michael dedicated 38 years to Wakefern Food Corporation, where he built a distinguished legacy of professionalism, leadership, and service. Throughout his career, he consistently demonstrated a strong commitment to supporting colleagues, customers, and the communities he served.

Beyond his professional accomplishments, Michael has always believed in using his experience and influence to uplift others, particularly individuals and communities facing challenges. His dedication to service aligns closely with Oasis N.O.W.'s mission of providing life-sustaining resources to those in need.

As a Board Member, Michael contributes leadership experience, strategic insight, and a deep commitment to humanitarian outreach. He is proud to support efforts that bring clean water, hope, and opportunity to vulnerable communities around the world.
