

PROVIDING CLEAN WATER. RESTORING HOPE. CHANGING LIVES.

FREDDIE JONES

BOARD MEMBER

Freddie Jones is a transportation and sales professional whose career has been built on reliability, relationship-building, and a commitment to exceptional service. Born in Manhattan, New York, and a graduate of Rowan University in Glassboro, New Jersey, Freddie brings a diverse perspective shaped by both professional experience and a passion for connecting with people from all walks of life.

Throughout his career, Freddie has developed strong communication, customer service, and operational skills that have enabled him to build lasting relationships and contribute to successful organizational outcomes. His dedication to service extends beyond the workplace and is reflected in his appreciation for community, family, and meaningful human connections.

An avid traveler with a love for the outdoors and cultural experiences, Freddie understands the importance of supporting communities and creating opportunities that improve quality of life. His experiences have reinforced his belief that access to essential resources is critical to helping individuals and families thrive.

As a Board Member of Oasis N.O.W., Freddie is committed to supporting the organization's efforts to provide clean water, promote community well-being, and deliver hope to those facing hardship. He is proud to be part of a mission dedicated to creating sustainable, life-changing impact around the world.
